

Camp Description

5-6 year old Beginners

Providing opportunities to learn the fun sport of soccer by introducing kicking and dribbling skills through a variety of age-appropriate small sided games and activities.

6-7 year old Advanced Beginners

Teaching the giving and receiving of the ball along with basic skills and introduction to tactics through micro-soccer.

8-10 year old Intermediate Techniques

“If you can’t control the ball you can’t do anything.” This quote from a famous player describes the focus for this ball control camp. The proper techniques for dribbling and passing will be stressed as we integrate numerous games and activities.

10-12 year old Inter/Advanced Techniques

“If you can’t control the ball you can’t do anything.” Controlling the ball under high pressure, in limited space and with quick decision making will be the focus. Proper techniques and speed will be stressed as we play numerous games and activities.

Middle School Group Tactics

A coed camp where players can start to apply complex defending and attacking tactics of soccer. Players will be grouped according to the level and ability.

High School Group Tactics

A coed camp where players can start to apply complex defending and attacking tactics of soccer. Players will be grouped according to the level and ability. Special attention will be placed on preparing for upcoming Boys High School and Girls Travel seasons. Expert guest coaches will join us for parts of this week.

21st Annual Trojan Soccer Camp

The Fruitport Soccer Camp emphasizes small group instruction in the basic soccer skills for players at any level. Particular attention is given on increasing soccer confidence through a maximum number of contacts with the ball. All training is soccer related, and corrective feedback is offered during “teachable moments”. Our focus for the morning camps is individual development. In the evening, we will focus on advanced group tactics. Students will be separated by ability to maximize development.

LOCATION:

- Morning Camp at Fruitport Softball Fields on Pontaluna Road
- Evening Camps at Fruitport Middle School.
